Alexander, Linda	Herrington Lake Conservation League	Summer boating season is here and everyone is having a great time on Herrington Lake! The Herrington Lake Conservation League is finalizing the plans for the greatest HLCL Pig Roast ever! Three bands will provide music all afternoon and evening. There will be a Corn Hole Tournament starting at 6:00 as well as a silent auction with lots of cool stuff and services available. If you would like to donate something for the auction, please call Linda Alexander at 548-2257! The pulled pork will be provided by Tom Brown from Sunset Marina. Tom was a big winner at the Harrodsburg Beef Festival this year, winning first place in 3 out of 4 categories, third in the other and best overall! So join the Herrington Lake Conservation League at Chimney Rock Marina, August 7, 4:00-??? Check out the silent auction, the HLCL merchandise and the 16 foot pontoon boat being raffled off! Help us celebrate the ninth year of this effort to clean up Herrington Lake! Also, make plans now to play in the 2010 HLCL Golf Outing on September 22 at the Peninsula Golf Resort!

Messenger, Deborah	Paint Lick Sportsman's Club	July 15: Garden Pantry, 5-7 p.m. Whether you a producer or a consumer, this event is for you. There's no exchange of monies, just commodities. So bring your extra bushels of tomatoes, gallons of blueberries, buckets of new potatoes, wheelbarrows of cucumbers, or bags of apples to the Paint Lick Community Garden Pantry! We've set up an open market under the shade of the trees and outdoor shelter at the site of the Paint Lick Community Center aka Paint Lick Sportsman's Club. If your gardens and orchards are overflowing with herbs, vegetables, fruits or other produce, come barter and trade with other gardeners and the general public. For more information, call Deborah Messenger at 859-619-0334. July 20: Meet, Greet, and Eat, 6 - 7:30 p.m. This evening is a feast that will satisfy your soul, lift your heart, and tickle your taste buds. This summer potluck picnic offers a great opportunity for you to get to know other community members at a more personal level, extend your professional/business networks, and benefit from exchange of kitchen tips and recipes. Whether you like to cook, grill, bake or EAT. Plan to join us at the Meet, Greet, and Eat summer potluck picnic. Bring prepared dishes and your favorite lawn chair to Friends of Paint Lick, where activities will be held both indoors as well as outdoors. For more information, call Deborah Messenger at 859-619-0334.
Mick, Nathan	Garrard Economic Development	Great talk on Uncle Tom's Cabin at the Garrard Historical Society Monday night. Check out the story in this week's Garrard Central Record. Waffle House is taking a look at Garrard County. Bringing in their real estate guys from Atlanta this month for a deeper look. Wrapping up economic feasibility study. Secured a free booth for Garrard County on the World Equestrian Games Trade Floor (first three days and last three days of WEG).
Miller, Roger	Farmers Bank
Morris, Maggie	Lancaster City Council	1. Thank you to the many community organizations and individuals who helped to make Come Sit a Spell Art Auction & Concert a success. We were able to raise $4,000 to continue the missions of the Governor William Owsley House and Garrard County Arts Council. 2. I along with Council Member Bret Baierlein will be developing a more structured and fair allocations process for community organizations to apply for financial support from the City of Lancaster.

Wilson, John	Garrard County Judge/Executive	The Garrard Fiscal Court has many projects that are active at this time. The grand theater is awaiting additional plumbing permits from Frankfort to complete the addition on the north side of the building. The judicial center is on schedule with steel being placed daily. Other projects include the walking trail and Uncle Tom's Cabin recreation. The county broke ground on the walking trail on June 23, 2010 and has the final survey completed for the cabin. Work will progress on both projects as crews are available.
